CONDITIONS OF SALE

I. Rejection of bids: Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

II. The buyer: The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

III. Identification and deposit by buyer: The name of the buyer of each lot shall be given immediately on the sale thereof, and when so required, each buyer shall sign a card giving the lot number, amount for which sold, and his or her name and address.

A deposit at the actual time of the sale shall be made of all or such part of the purchase prices as may be required.

If the two foregoing conditions are not complied with, the lot or lots so purchased may at the option of the auctioneer be put up again and re-sold.

IV. Risk after purchase: Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchasers' risk, and neither the consignor nor the Association is responsible for the loss of, or any damage to any article by theft, fire, breakage, however occasioned, or any other cause whatsoever.

V. Delivery of purchases: Delivery of any purchases will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

VI. Receipted bills: Goods will only be delivered on presentation of a receipted bill. A receipted bill presented by any person will be recognized and honored as an order by the buyer, directing the delivery to the bearer of the goods described thereon. If a receipted bill is lost before delivery of the property has been taken, the buyer should immediately notify the Association of such loss.

VII. Storage in default of prompt payment and calling for goods: Articles not paid for in full and not called for by the purchaser or agent by noon of the day following that of the sale may be turned over by the Association to some carter to be carried to and stored in some warehouse until the time of the delivery therefrom to the purchaser, and the cost of such cartage and storage and any other charges will be charged against the purchaser and the risk of loss or damage occasioned by such removal or storage will be upon the purchaser.

In any instance where the purchase bill has not been paid in full by noon of the day following that of the sale, the Association and the auctioneer reserve the right, any other stipulation in these conditions of sale notwithstanding, in respect to any or all lots included in the purchase bill, at its or his option, either to cancel the sale thereof or to re-sell the same at public or private sale without further notice for the account of the buyer and to hold the buyer responsible for any deficiency and all losses and expenses sustained in so doing.

VIII. Shipping: Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, but the Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

IX. Guaranty: The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly and endeavors therein and also at the actual time of sale to point out any error, defect or imperfection, but guaranty is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of any lot and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloging or imperfection not noted or pointed out. Every lot is sold "as is" and without recourse.

Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, and the Association will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued and in its judgment may thereafter sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby will become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without foundation.

X. Records: The records of the Auctioneer and the Association are in all cases to be considered final and the highest bid shall in all cases be accepted by both buyer and seller as the value against which all claims for losses or damage shall lie.

XI. Buying on order: Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph, or telephone, if conditions permit, will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchases so made will be subject to the foregoing conditions of sale, except that, in the event of a purchase of a lot of one or more books by or for a purchaser who has not through himself or his agent been present at the exhibition or sale, the Association will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be refunded if the lot differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of arts, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit must be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced Catalogues: Priced copies of the catalogue, or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at charges commensurate with the duties involved in copying the necessary information from the records of the Association.

These conditions of sale cannot be altered except by the auctioneer or by an officer of the Association.

INTELLIGENT APPRAISALS FOR UNITED STATES AND STATE TAX

INSURANCE AND OTHER PURPOSES AND CATALOGUES OF PRIVATE COLLECTIONS

APPRAISALS AND CATALOGUES. Together with the increase in exhibition and sales rooms, the American Art Association, Inc., will expand its service of furnishing appraisements, under expert direction, of art and literary property, jewelry and all personal effects, in the settlement of estates, for inheritance tax, insurance and other purposes. It is prepared also to supplement this work by making catalogues of the contents of homes or of entire estates, such catalogues to be modelled after the finely and intelligently produced catalogues of the Association's own Sales.

The Association will furnish at request the names of many Trust and Insurance Companies, Executors, Administrators, Trustees, Attorneys and private individuals for whom the Association has made appraisements which have not only been entirely satisfactory to them, but have been accepted by the United States Revenue Department, State Comptroller and others in interest.

DANIEL RIDGWAY KNIGHT

AMERICAN: 1845—1924

DANIEL RIDGWAY KNIGHT was born at Philadelphia in 1845, and entered the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, later passing to the atelier Gleyre in Paris; he spent three years, in addition, at the Ecole des Beaux Arts, finishing his studies at the British Academy in Rome. After a period of teaching in America, he went again to Paris in 1871, where he formed the acquaintance of Meissonier, who was to exert on his work a considerable influence. He died in Paris in 1924, after a long life spent almost entirely in his adopted country, in the pleasant valley of the Seine.

Many of his paintings were exhibited in the Paris salons of various years, and he became known for his models—peasant girls for the most part—and his individual manner of interpreting their emotions and their occupations; and for his rendering of the scenery of the Norman countryside.

Some of the paintings in the present exhibition, having been removed from the studio of the late artist, are studies in various stages of completion; many of these unfinished pictures show evidence of the later maturity of his manner.

DANIEL RIDGWAY KNIGHT

Mrs. H. E. Murray

AMERICAN: 1845—1924

1—THE WELL

15.

Height, 15½ inches; width, 13 inches

A CLOUDY, wind-torn sky hovers over the blue lands of the far distance. In the foreground, among the tangled undergrowth of the wild meadowland, stands an old well, by the posts of which have sprung up two saplings.

Sold by order of his sons, LOUIS ASTON KNIGHT and CHARLES KNIGHT.

DANIEL RIDGWAY KNIGHT

A. Hillstatter.

AMERICAN: 1845—1924

2—THE VILLAGE STREET

40.

Height, 15 inches; length, 18¼ inches

UP into the foreground runs the street under the warm summer sunshine, between rows of old stone shuttered houses, the line at the right in shadow from the westering sun. Along the path figures of peasant women and children, gossiping, trudging, sleeping in the peaceful afternoon.

Sold by order of his sons, LOUIS ASTON KNIGHT and CHARLES KNIGHT.

EDMUND HARBURGER

GERMAN: 1846—1906

3—THE ALE DRINKER

330.

(Panel)

Height, 8¼ inches; length, 12¼ inches

WILLIAM HENRY HILLIARD

AMERICAN: 1836—1910

4—LANDSCAPE WITH WINDMILL

15.

Height, 16½ inches; length, 23¾ inches

Signed at lower right, W. H. HILLIARD.

Property of a Private Collector.

OLIVE PARKER BLACK

AMERICAN: 1868—

5—THE WILLOWS

25.

Height, 16 inches; length, 24 inches

THE fine fragrance of spring lies in the swept blue skies with their white stratus clouds, against which the willows of the foreground wave their branches, already beginning to glow with the buds of new leaves. The fresh grass at the left from which they spring, the narrow stream winding its way into the middle distance, the slowly rising meadowland at the right and the cluster of farm buildings behind it all respond alike to the infectious happiness of the warm sun.

Signed at lower left, O. P. BLACK.

Property of a Private Collector.

ANTONIO FABRÉS

SPANISH: 1854—

6—MENDER OF POTS

(Panel)

Height, 17½ inches; width, 14¼ inches

AGAINST the white wall of an Algerian street, seated on a tattered rug and wrapped in a great deal of torn sacking, is the chocolate-brown, bearded native, his head crowned with a turban-like fez, engaged in riveting together a broken faïence bowl, further specimens awaiting his attention beside him at the right.

Signed at lower right, A. FABRÉS.

Property of a Private Collector.

R. Gilchrist

EDWARD GAY, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1837—

7—ALDER BROOK

20.

Height, 18 inches; width, 10 inches

A SUNNY September day finds the brook winding between green flowery meadows, with a curtain of woods glimpsed faintly at the left; and stretching, too, into the right foreground, which is a maze of slender trunks pushing upwards their yellowing leafage by the side of a rustic bridge, which crosses the stream a little farther off. Beneath them, and dwarfed by them, on the narrow river path, is the solitary figure of a man carrying a gun.

Signed at lower right, EDWARD GAY, and dated on back 1876.

Property of a Private Collector.

R. Fridenberg

EDWARD TROY

AMERICAN: CONTEMPORARY

8—DEXTER

35.

Height, 19 inches; length, 23¼ inches

Signed at lower left, E. TROY, 1867.

Property of a Private Collector.

DANIEL RIDGWAY KNIGHT

AMERICAN: 1845—1924

Mrs. A. du Vannes

9—A FISHER-GIRL

30.

Height, 22 inches; width, 18½ inches

MUD-FLATS and an incoming arm of the sea bridged by rows of stakes, under a morning sky with the promise of brilliant tints in its clean expanse; leaning on a boat-hook is the young fisher-girl, a yellow scarf tied about the neck of her blue bodice, her head, under its short brown hair, bent over to her right, an empty basket slung over her left shoulder.

Sold by order of his sons, LOUIS ASTON KNIGHT and CHARLES KNIGHT.

DANIEL RIDGWAY KNIGHT

AMERICAN: 1845—1924

Robert Hymans

10—THE SEINE AT POISSY

15.

Height, 13 inches; width, 9¾ inches

AN autumn day, the blue sky almost covered by passages of white cloud. The foreground, entirely occupied by the rippling waters of the stream, is overshadowed by the masses of the leafage cresting the farther bank, while towering to the sky are two trees touched with the russet and gray of October.

Sold by order of his sons, LOUIS ASTON KNIGHT and CHARLES KNIGHT.

Mrs. F. G. Pummely.

WORDSWORTH THOMPSON, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1840—1896

11—THE RAPIDS, MOUNTAIN ISLAND, NORTH CAROLINA

30.

Height, 28½ inches; length, 43¾ inches

A WILD and gloomy gorge of the French Broad River, the high rocky banks piled with dark pines thrusting spiky shafts into the mist and the thunder clouds which hang low over the summits of the crags. The river itself swirls furiously over the low weir among scattered rocks, lashing itself into a curdled white mass of foam lighting the lower half of the scene in sharp relief against the universal sombreness above.

Signed at lower left, WORDSWORTH THOMPSON, 1871.

Property of a Private Collector.

J. Holmes

DANIEL RIDGWAY KNIGHT

AMERICAN: 1845—1924

12—WATER CARRIER

130.

Height, 31¼ inches; width, 25½ inches

STANDING on the edge of the river, framed by a mass of flowers springing from the left of the canvas and the sun-lit wooded banks which fringe the farther water, is a young girl with white blouse, plum-colored bodice and skirt, and blue apron, holding a ewer in her left hand and gazing off to the right away from the sunset.

Sold by order of his sons, LOUIS ASTON KNIGHT and CHARLES KNIGHT.

DANIEL RIDGWAY KNIGHT

Mrs. A. du Vannes

AMERICAN: 1845—1924

13—JULIA

55.

Height, 31¾ inches; width, 25½ inches

PERCHED on a ladder, leaning against a tree, up which is trained a climbing red rose-vine, is a young Normande, plucking roses to fill the basket suspended from one of the rungs; her white sleeves are rolled above her firm young arms, her knotted hair crowning a face beautiful in the fineness of the straight nose, in the full lips, and in the eyes, which are intent upon her work. In the distance at the right, a vista of sun-filled valley with river, village and swelling uplands.

Sold by order of his sons, LOUIS ASTON KNIGHT and CHARLES KNIGHT.

DANIEL RIDGWAY KNIGHT

F. Richards.

AMERICAN: 1845—1924

14—ELISE

50.

Height, 32 inches; width, 25¾ inches

STANDING among the greenery of a kitchen garden, which loses itself in wooded country and stream in the distance, is a young girl in striped brown and gray bodice and skirt holding three enormous cabbages, freshly taken up from the dewy ground.

Sold by order of his sons, LOUIS ASTON KNIGHT and CHARLES KNIGHT.

Ira Haupt

DANIEL RIDGWAY KNIGHT

AMERICAN: 1845—1924

15—RISETTE

140.

Height, 28½ inches; length, 36¼ inches

THE river and the distant rising country are lighted alike with the warm glow of a late afternoon sun, and diagonally across the foreground, high above the water, runs the old stone wall of a rose garden, where among the profusion of the flowers stands the figure of a young peasant girl in white blouse, colored bodice and striped skirt, a bouquet of brilliant red flowers clasped to her waist.

Sold by order of his sons, LOUIS ASTON KNIGHT and CHARLES KNIGHT.

CHARLES SCHREYVOGEL

R. Glenn

AMERICAN: 1861—1912

16—BISON

10.

(Crayon Drawing)

Height, 4¼ inches; length, 7 inches

THE majestic body of the animal displayed in profile to the left, the fine head furtively turned to face the observer.

Signed at lower right, C. SCHREYVOGEL, '99.

Property of MR. JOHN DUGAN.

LÉON GASPARD

CONTEMPORARY FRENCH

17—LES MISÉRABLES

50.

(Pastel Drawing)

Height, 8¾ inches; length, 20½ inches

A WINDING colorful procession of shabbily clad Russian fugitives, with sleds bearing their wretched belongings, is moving slowly across a snow-covered landscape towards a wooden bridge crossing a river in the middle distance.

Signed at lower right, LÉON GASPARD, RUSSIA, 1915.

Property of a Private Collector.

E. L. Clarke

EDWARD LAMSON HENRY, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1841—1919

18—THE YOUNG DRIVER

10.

(Sepia Drawing)

Height, 5¼ inches; length, 7½ inches

A WAGON loaded with wheatsheaves and drawn by two horses is passing through a rustic gate, a youngster seated on top and holding whip and reins; a few laborers and an excited dog, leaping at the novelty, complete the picture.

Signed at lower right, E. L. HENRY, OCT. 1878.

Property of MR. JOHN DUGAN.

S. Drey

ROBERT SWAIN GIFFORD, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1840—1905

19—BIRCHES IN AUTUMN

10.

(Water Color)

Height, 10 inches; width, 7 inches

WITH foreground herbage withered to a soft tan, a slender birch tree shoots its erratic course upward at left of centre, its white bark relieving the landscape and the dark blue and the white of the sky; by it, some small neighbors.

Signed at lower right, R. SWAIN GIFFORD.

Property of MR. JOHN DUGAN.

EDWIN LORD WEEKS

AMERICAN: 1849—1903

Mrs. A. du Vanner

20—INDIAN FAKIR

25.

Height, 9 inches; length, 12¾ inches

THE side of the street, with the door of a ruined mosque at the left, and at the right a broken wall; before it a bench on which is squatted the fakir. His audience comprises the seated turbaned figures of two old men in long white garments and a standing, half-nude third, the two former playing with his monkeys, the latter watching his incantations over the earthern jar.

Signed at lower left, L. WEEKS.

Property of a Private Collector.

H. A. DYER

AMERICAN: 1872—

21—THE HUT

(Water Color)

Height, 11 inches; length, 15 inches

CENTRALLY, the entrance to a grass-grown path, the wooden gate thrown back, leading to the right past the tiny hut with its flower garden to a faintly glimpsed cornfield.

40.

Height, 25½ inches; length, 39½ inches

The lush grass is already sprinkled with wild flowers, and the gnarled apple trees are blazing with the fragrant pink blossom, which weighs down even the slenderest of their twigs, balanced so lightly over the lake at the right, with its water-lilies and heedless untroubled surface; and deep in the soft grass of the foreground are four sober young calves, also mightily unmoved by all this business of Spring.

Height, 27 inches; length, 43 inches

A moody horizon, clear at the water's edge and banked high with cumulus clouds above; peopled with sailing vessels at the left. The green sea, at ebb-tide, breaks lazily on the uncovered sand of the foreground, an occasional sea-bird gliding a scant distance above the wave crests; the rising sun, now hidden behind the cloud masses, throws a wan yellow light over the whole.

AMERICAN: 1845—1924

79—THE ISLAND, POISSY

30.

Height, 18 inches; length, 21¾ inches

THE island is a not very large hummock of green shrubs, crowned with trees and with a group of low buildings nestling on the hither shore and forming a species of port, in the shelter of which lie two or three smacks with bare poles. A prospect of blue hillside at the left and the vivid summer sky, are more vaguely reflected in the quiet surface of the water.

80—HOME FROM THE FISHING FLEET

Height, 18½ inches; length, 25½ inches

AGAINST a low breakwater stretching from the gray seashore out into the quiet water, are seated two figures; a fair-haired Swedish fisher-girl, a colored handkerchief knotted about her head, and a sturdy young sailor wearing a sou'wester. She looks thoughtfully, even wistfully, out to the meeting-place of gray sky and gray sea, while the unromantic male is studiously engaged in lighting his pipe.

82—SHEEP AND LAMBS AT THE CROSSING

Height, 24 inches; length, 29 inches

A LITTLE thicket of trees through which murmurs a tiny stream curving into the right foreground among the grass and wild flowers of autumn; an old bearded shepherd in a blue coat, a stick in his right hand, hesitates as the ewes and lambs which surround him huddle uncertainly together at the crossing of the rivulet to the gap beyond in the trees. In the frame of the gap, and at the extreme left, the dull yellow sky lights mistily a faintly seen vista of brown earth.

124—THE RECONNAISSANCE

95.

(Panel)

Height, 17¾ inches; width, 13½ inches

UNEVEN, sandy country, scantily covered with grass and rising to a hummock at the left; in the background a band of trees shrouded in early spring foliage below a pale April sky. Mounted on a brown horse, in the foreground and facing right, a captain of the Second Regiment, binoculars and map in hand, is surveying the surrounding country.

125—THE CORNER OF THE MEADOW

20.

Height, 12 inches; length, 19 inches

THE boundary fence of wooden rails and loose stones runs diagonally away from the right foreground into a copse of trees dominating the centre of the picture and dividing the fields at the left and right. The grass and foliage is gay with the light of the sun, though the sky above is of an even cloudy grayness.

127—GIRL PICKING CHERRIES

110.

Height, 18¼ inches; width, 15 inches

In a cherry orchard, knee-deep in thyme and fragrant wild flowers, is the figure of a girl in a gray dress, wearing a little straw sun-bonnet and facing left; she is grasping with one hand a twisted cherry tree, while the other reaches up to pluck the fruit from the heavily-laden branches which form a tangled pattern before a light sky.

128—THE RIVER

Height, 13¼ inches; length, 19 inches

The sky is mournful over the river, growing lighter down near the far horizon seen through the line of young willows at the right which stretch along the bank of the river until met by the huge confused mass of foliage at the left, springing from behind the dark reeds of the shore. So at the left and right the stream is half-choked with their tangled expanse, yet reflects in some measure the evanescent tones of the sky.

129—ISLAND CREEK, NEAR ALBANY, N. Y.

Height, 12 inches; length, 24 inches

FLAT country with lush meadows and distant arable land stretching away to woods on the horizon that fringe the right of the scene; centrally a white farmhouse, with a kitchen garden circumscribed by trees. The creek meanders uncertainly through the foreground, its course indicated by the rose-pink line of crumbling banks and wisps of rushes almost hiding the grass; in a punt, where the reeds are thickest, are sitting two boys with rods, waiting hopefully as a cloud obscures the sun immediately over their heads.

150—SUMMER MORNING ON THE RIVER THAMES

Height, 35 inches; length, 55½ inches

THE broad expanse of the river covers the right foreground, flowing away to lose itself round a curve behind the tall beaches of the middle distance. At the left rough grassland with lines of willows coming down to the water's edge, rushes, and a broken tree dipping into the river, where swims a brood of ducks; at the right, a prospect of pasture land stretching far away to low hills along the line of a curving yellow road which runs to a manor house framed in trees. From the flat unfenced fields cattle have strayed on the farther shore into the cool water; but the peaceful river is unpopulated save for the birds and animals, and a distant sail reflects equably a cloudless sky disturbed only by the central glory of the hazy sun.

173—HER MAJESTY'S CAMPAIGN IN FLANDERS

40. Height, 30¼ inches; length, 43½ inches

IN the immediate foreground at the left on a rise of uneven country is the General, in scarlet coat and wearing the Order of the Garter, mounted on a gray horse, and accompanied by his aides, two of whom have been despatched in different directions toward the scene of the assault. This is being conducted in the middle distance by masses of cavalry, advancing in serried lines under the cover of artillery fire against the wall of the city, two of the bastions of which are visible at the right as the smoke clears away revealing at the same time a distant prospect of blue hills. The ground is littered with equipment, wounded men and horses.

174—THE FOREST BROOK

25 Height, 42 inches; width, 32 inches

A NARROW stream imprisoned between high, tree-clad banks emerges from the foreground to lose itself in the distance. The sunlight throws bright splashes of gold on the long grass, and the water reflects a sky of limpid blue, glimpses of which are visible in the distance through a curtain of leafage.

175—THE COUNTRY HOLIDAY

120.

(Panel)

Height, 14¾ inches; length, 16 inches

BROAD rolling scrub country, stretching for acres under the blue cloud-flecked sky of a summer afternoon; sand, grass, wildflowers and patches of gorse on the top of a hill. At the left is seated on the ground a girl of perhaps ten years, in a white dress, with a poppy-red cap, sash and stockings; looking inquiringly on at the activities of her small sister in white, who stands uncertainly in the grass in the right middle distance.

176—SHIPWRECK

130.

Height, 19½ inches; length, 23½ inches

A CLOUD-TORN sky lighted only low down on the eastern horizon by the rising sun, looms above the reeling distant shape of an abandoned vessel, its solitary brown sail flapping hopelessly in the wind; in the foreground a boat-load of shipwrecked men is making difficult headway against the heavy ground-swell, while overhead black gulls hover ominously about the lost craft.

177—SUMMER ON THE UPPER THAMES

65.

Height, 22¼ inches; length, 36 inches

The summer sun beats gaily down on to the old narrow river, which finds its peaceful way between tree-crowned banks past the village in the middle distance on the farther bank, past its church framed in trees, until it loses itself in the left foreground; on the right, along a path cut through an emerald lawn, a woman with a basket is coming towards the observer and a skiff awaiting her at the water's edge. Sky and stream are pale and clean in the light of an English June.

179—PORT OF VEERE, ON THE ISLAND OF WALCHEREN

190.

(Panel)

Height, 13½ inches; length, 20½ inches

ON the right, sleeping placidly in the quiet Dutch atmosphere, is the town of Veere, with its quay, avenue of formally planted trees and the belfry of the Town Hall, glowing softly in the bright sunshine against the brilliant sky; in the centre, floating on the Middelburg canal, are two great sailing barges, fellows of those tied up at the quay, rearing tall masts and brown sails into the turquoise heavens.

Signed at lower right, P. J. CLAYS, '67.

A leaf pasted on the back of the picture and signed by the artist states that it was painted for M. van Becetaere, lawyer; statement dated Brussels, 1867.

Height, 14½ inches; length, 20 inches

A WINDY spring morning blowing up scudding masses of cloud and lashing into a fine frenzy of rustling the foliage of the tall elms and poplars of the sky-line along the road stretching away at the left of the background. Over the bare field roars the wind, over the brown stubble and the grassland with its stones and patches of weeds and an abandoned plow—so that the solitary figure with a hoe, scratching the earth where grass meets stubble, shivers at his chilly task.

EVENING light on the Venice of 1892—the World's Fair on the shores of Lake Michigan. An impressive, almost fantastic panorama of minarets and domes, Florentine towers and basilicas, stretching across the scene in endless variety under a panoramic sky touched with yellow and pale orange in the west, and reflected in smooth horizontal passages of color in the water, on the surface of which is plying a solitary boat.

182—OVER THE HILLS

55.

Height, 25 inches; width, 21 inches

AN autumn morning, with the leaves on the ground, and behind the few half-denuded trees in the left foreground an open rolling country swelling to low hills on the near horizon; a narrow road, patterned with the shadows of the fence posts, curves away into the sun-warmed distance. Among the trees, two men have turned aside from their walk to converse with a third, looking over the side of a low fence fringing his property.

Height, 30 inches; length, 40 inches

A SOMBRE landscape, brown and olive-green under a sombre sky; the cart-track of the foreground, a runnel of water and the line of wispy birches converge on the centre of the middle distance, finding their way through the russet of the scrub and the boulders that scar the country. From right and left masses of forest dip down to lose themselves in the level of the middle horizon, baring to view the broad expanse of the desolate heavens.

VARIATIONS on a domestic theme. The cottage interior, between the open window at the right and the table at the left bearing the remains of a meal; and in the corner thus formed an old peasant in cap, blue smock, gray trousers and sabots leaning back in his chair with clasped hands, his eyes nodding in sleep while next him the companion of his declining years, a kindly-faced woman with flowered blouse and spotted skirt, looks fondly over to his figure, the more realistic part of her being concentrated on the knitting of a stocking.

A TABLE by the window in the interior of a French cottage, the goodman eating his midday meal and helped thereto by his old wife. Outside, the kindly sun shines on a mass of tangled greenery and the line of the yellow road, from which has entered timidly a young woman in an old black dress and carrying a baby. She stands hesitatingly on the steps as the peasant's wife, with a world of practical sympathy and understanding, proffers her a plate of stew from the steaming tureen.
